HELD UP!

A. C. AND O. TRAIN STOPPED BY ROBBERS!

No. 1—the "Cincinnati Express" of the C. and O.—was over an hour late this morning.

But the average chow who sat on the viaduct and saw her go by was not aware of the cause.

THE LEDGER, with its "nose for news," is able to explain matters.

When she reached Augusta at 12:51 this morning a gang of would be train robbers "held her up."

They stopped the train and demanded that the Engineer shut off the air—as they evidently had an idea that such process would enable them to "go through the safe."

The Engineer, who was somewhat of a strategist, gave a wink to his Fireman and both "took to the bushes," which were easily accessible in that wild region. The "greenhorn" robbers had by this time recovered their "sober, second thought," and came to the conclusion that they had an elephant—and didn't know what to do with it.

After a brief consultation they, too, took to the bushes, and later the Engineer and his Fireman came out of their hiding and the train proceeded, without the passengers knowing why they had been delayed.

SUDDENLY CALLED.

Mr. John Kincaid Died at Maysville Wednesday Night.

A sad and sudden death occurred at Maysville Wednesday night.

Mr. John Kincaid of Huntington, W. Va., with his nine-year-old son, was visiting his uncle, Mr. W. T. Pogue, at Maysville.

Mr. Kincaid has been in failing health for some time, and he thought a visit to the country might be the means of improving his condition.

Wednesday all day he was complaining, but no one thought it was serious, and after retiring for the night he was suddenly seized with cramps and died within a few minutes.

Mr. Kincaid was for a number of years a prosperous farmer of Boyd county, residing near Ashland, but on account of failing health he gave up farming and moved to Huntington, where his wife died some time ago. He was highly connected and well liked by all who knew him.

The remains were shipped to Huntington last night, where they will be interred today.

He leaves one little boy and a number of relatives in this section of the state.

MR. JAHU DEWITT MILLER.

The Eloquent Lecturer at the Opera House Last Evening.

A most delightful entertainment at the Opera-house last evening was the closing of another successful year in the history of the High School.

The graduates were greeted with one of the largest audiences of the season, and the Principals, Miss Fannie I. Gordon and Mr. Diamitt C. Hutchins, are certainly to be congratulated.

The program was opened by a march, the pupils arranging themselves in a pretty manner on the stage for a chorus, after which the scholars retired, leaving the graduates and Principals on the stage.

The class was an unusually large one this year, eleven young ladies, Misses Ruth Allender, Sallie Ball, Florence Barkley, Edith Berry, Beale Cate, Mary Chambers, Beale Childs, Nannie Gabb, Alice Kirk, Ritchie May Tolle, Lyda Woods, and five young gentlemen, Messrs. Harry Pangburn, Samuel Bierboer, Edward Fairfax Dulin Moss, Ethan Bradley, Courtenay Ross, disposing the course and receiving their diplomas.

Miss Bertha Sparks was prevented on account of illness from finishing her course, and hence did not graduate.

After the chorus, Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, President of the Board of Education, introduced Mr. Jahu De Witt Miller.

Mr. Miller is no stranger to the people of Maysville, having lectured at the High School on several occasions.

He is an eloquent speaker and one gifted with that power to make himself a great success on the American platform. His subject, "Is the World Growing Better or Worse?" was an appropriate selection for the evening, and during his talk of an hour and a half was given the best attention of his audience.

At the close Mr. Wadsworth delivered the diplomas to the graduates. Medals were also awarded to Misses Ethel Vicroy and Alberts Helmer of the Intermediate Department in the High School building and to Misses Anna Kirk and Ethel Hutchison of the Intermediate Department in the Fifth Ward school taught by Professor Berry.

Books were given by Professor Berry to Masters Warren Oder and William Nelson.

These medals and books were given for scholarship and deportment only, attendance not taken into consideration.

Musical by the Maysville Orchestra, added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

MAYSVILLE-KNOXVILLE!

THE LEDGER'S SPECIAL FROM THE BALL GAMES.

ROBBED US AGAIN.

The Knoxville "Indians" are not "honest Indians."

If they were, they would come off their own dunghill and play ball, where the Umpire and the "rooters" would at least give visitors a fair deal.

Yesterday's game was again won by Umpire Denny, as will be seen by the following telegram:

Special to Public Ledger.
Knoxville, June 11th—7:30 p. m.
Knoxville 4.
Maysville 2.

There were 900 in attendance on the last game between the Maysville and Knoxville teams today.

Knoxville won by hard hitting. Knoxville—Miller and Gibson.

Hits—5.
Errors—1.
Struck out—By Miller 3.

Bases on balls—Off Miller 2.
Maysville—
Batters—Newton and Kellner.

Bases on balls—Off Newton 6.
Home runs—Kellner and Lautenbach.
Denny was the Umpire, and the time of the game was 1 hour and 40 minutes.

The Maysville team leaves for home tonight.

L. C. BLANKENSHIP.

The Locals will arrive at 1:30 p. m. and go direct to the Park, where they will also go direct after the Alerts.

There will be an interesting game this afternoon at the Park, and there should also be a large crowd out.

The boys certainly deserve lots of credit for the way they have handled the entire city of Knoxville this time. But maybe they'll get a chance at only nine of them some day up here, and then we'll show those people that by fair play their club isn't one.

WOLLY FALL.

Mr. Conrad Rudy Makes a Most Miraculous Escape.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mr. Conrad Rudy made a miraculous escape from serious if not fatal injury.

He has been confined to his house for some time with ailments peculiar to old age, and has required constant watchfulness and care.

Last afternoon he fell from the window of his room to the ground below, a distance of some ten or twelve feet, and singularly enough escaped with only a few bruises.

Mr. Rudy will be 81 years old next September, and in his enfeebled condition it is remarkable that he was not seriously hurt.

QUICK WORK.

How Judge Harbison's Court Dispatches Criminal Business.

On the 6th of last March George Moran, living near Sardin, lost a horse.

Jarrett B. Williams was the supposed thief.

The horse was soon after found near Ashland.

But Williams went to Scott county and lived under the alias of Ed. Bickler.

Late Wednesday night Chief of Police Lushy of Georgetown brought him to this city and lodged him in Jail.

Thursday morning he was arraigned in the Police Court, waived examination and was held by Judge Wadsworth to the Circuit Court.

In a few moments Judge Harbison had a Special Grand Jury summoned. An indictment was found.

Williams was taken into Court. He entered a plea of guilty.

And his punishment was fixed at two years in the Penitentiary. All this between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. And if the law had not prevented the passing of sentence under two days, Judge Harbison would have started the prisoner to Frankfort in charge of Sheriff Jefferson at 5:30 Friday morning.

BALLENGER, the Jeweler.

WHAT HE SAYS

Governor Bradley Will Not Accept a Cabinet Office.

HE DEFINES HIS POSITION.

Says McKinley Did Not Write Him a Free Silver Letter.

DOESN'T HURT McKINLEY.

Governor Bradley's much heralded interview has been given out and neither of the McKinley letters were used in the statement.

The interview was caused by the publication of the garbled portions of a letter written Major McKinley by Governor Bradley, but the interview does not attempt to tell what McKinley's letters contained, because of the Governor's idea of the proprieties about the treatment of a private communication.

Bradley felt that an attempt had been made to impeach his money record by means of that letter, and his statement is simply a defense of his currency position, but not an attack on Major McKinley.

A consultation of leading Republicans was held in the Executive office prior to the giving out the interview. Several of these gentlemen were in favor of publishing not only the McKinley letters, but several letters written by leading Republicans, and received about the time the McKinley letter reached Governor Bradley.

The Governor, however, refused to entertain any such proposition, insisting that the letters were private, and could not be used with regard to honor he published.

The interview follows:

"I cannot permit the Washington dispatch to the Chicago Record to pass unchallenged. In response, I deny that I ever was the representative of Mr. Hanna in any way, nor is it true that my action was controlled or governed in the slightest degree by what is politically called in that dispatch the 'Hart-Clarkson crowd.' There was never any combination between those gentlemen or any of them and myself or any of my friends.

I have not attempted to make terms with Mr. McKinley or any of his managers or with any one of the Presidential aspirants or any of their managers. I have not offered to trade sixteen votes or any vote for the Vice-Presidency, nor will I be a candidate for Vice-President, nor would I accept a Cabinet position.

"The honor of the Republic and the welfare of the people demand its correct solution. It is far above personal success or individual advancement, and in this hour of supreme trial the Republican Convention should declare unhesitatingly in favor of the single gold standard. It is no time for quibbling or evasion. We may lose some Western states but this loss will be more than compensated by gains in the old slave border states. But if I thought that such a declaration would cause the Republican nominee to be defeated, I would none the less favor it, for success at the expense of National welfare would be neither creditable nor profitable. In justice to Mr. McKinley, I will add that the statement in today's Courier-Journal that he wrote me recommending the 'Adoption of a plank with a strong free silver tinge' is not true. Neither he nor any one of the gentlemen addressed suggested anything of the kind."

Governor Bradley, in company with a party of prominent Kentucky Republicans, will leave on a special train Monday for St. Louis.

WE'RE FOR AMERICANS!

It won't be absolutely safe to "holler" till your favorite is safely out of the St. Louis woods.

The quickest and the quietest way to reduce wages of workmen is to reduce the value of the money in which wages are paid.

THE LEDGER is ready to accept the result at St. Louis, whatever it may be;
and that is a great deal more than some of the monthlies will do.

WHENEVER a person "defeats the people's choice," it looks very much like the "person" had the majority on his side, and that the "people" was in a woful minority.

THE Canadian farmer must be looking forward with satisfaction to the harvesting of his next hay crop. During the McKinley Tariff period our imports of foreign hay averaged only 80,000 tons a year, but in nine months of the current fiscal year we imported no less than 246,513 tons, practically all of which came from Canada.

THE total population of the silver mining communities, including all those who are directly or indirectly dependent on silver money for a living, cannot exceed 700,000. Why should the interests of the 70,000,000 people of the United States be sacrificed to the supposed interests of this small fraction of their number? Isn't it a pretty insignificant tail to wag such a stupendous dog?

The Ordinance levying the taxes for 1898 appears elsewhere in THE LEDGER.

The statement is made by two very close to the Hon. Charles J. Bronston, and who seem to know whereof they speak, that that gentleman will not be a candidate for Congress in the Ashland District. At the proper time Mr. Bronston will to declare himself, and Colonel Breakbridge will have practically a clear track, so far as the Eastern end of the District is concerned.

Mr. James Perdue, an old soldier residing flicted with rheumatism, but received prompt relief from pain by using Cham-could hardly raise up. If I had not gotten relief from this balm, I would not have been able to do my work. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done me a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it." For

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional treatment. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed it causes a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube returned to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

YELLOW METAL.

A Gold Plank Will Go Into the National Republican Platform.

"McKinley and Sound Money" Will Be the Cry of the Campaign.

The Western States are to be pushed into the McKinley campaign. The Only Question Now is Concerning the Vice Presidency.

St. Louis, June 12.—The announcement by Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, that Speaker Reed is entirely out of the contest, and that his name may be presented but will not be voted for, has set the McKinleyites on edge.
They are simply enthusiastic, and have no doubt in saying that now there will be no opposition to the Ohio man.

At the Hannan headquarters there was a vast amount of enthusiasm. Mr. Galtree and Mr. Hannan smile and say that everything is all right. There is no question now about the result. McKinley will be nominated on the first ballot and the platform will be pretty solid for gold. The only question now is about the vice presidency. I thought Wednesday that McAlpin, of New York, or Redfield Proctor, of New England, would be easily nominated, but there are indications that the nominee may be a western or southern man.
Tennessee is still interested in H. Clay Evans, and will stand by him to the end.

The truth is, however, that no man from the north is eligible for the security of the nomination, and that the best outlook is for Lohrman, of New Jersey, who has the endorsement of his state and is a remarkably good man around statesmen. It is conceded now, however, that McKinley will be nominated on the first ballot, and that the country will be enthusiastic in his interest. The only question is as to the amount of his majority in the convention and in the electoral college.
The fact that no name will be presented but that of McKinley, and in consequence there will be a great republican McKinley vote.

The important question at this juncture concerns the vice presidency. Reed will not have it, and has authorized McKinley to say there are no cir-stances under which he could be persuaded to accept. After Reed comes McAlpin, of New Jersey, McAlpin, of Maine, and a lot of candidates who are liable to have splendid support. So far as the platform is concerned it will be solidly for gold. The opposition to the western senators has no influence, and the belief now is that everything will go for gold.

Back of that is the question whether the western senators and delegates will bolt, but those now here are quiet in their determination to stay. They are the result of the gathering. There will be no difference on the platform. Gold, silver or compromise will suit the delegates, and in support of all that they will be the westerners, a gold platform will go. There were indications Thursday that Senator Teller, of Colorado, would interfere with the platform, but it is evident now he cannot accomplish anything, and must resolutely support the platform. The country, devoted to free silver, and there are many thousands of all political parties who want him to be a candidate for the presidency. But the platform will be unanimous for McKinley and gold, and if anybody wants anything else he will have to look him up.

St. Louis, June 12.—McKinley is not to be nominated without a struggle.
Twenty-four hundred delegates will be present, and the political campaign will be a hard one. The western delegates will be a fighting chance for the field against McKinley.

McKinley's block in the road of the delegates is the divergent views of the delegates on the financial plank of the platform. These differences are as yet unresolved, and the delegates are not reconcilable. The western delegates maintain their adherence to silver, while the delegates from the east are in favor of the gold platform. The other half of the country will be represented by delegates who will listen to no suggestion of any other platform declaration. This issue even in these anti-convention days, has ranged the delegates into two camps. The men from Maine and the far east still uphold the banner of Reed, while those from the middle west, supported by scattering delegates from the middle west, declare themselves for Allison. Quay will, of course, receive the support of Pennsylvania, and Morton is assured of all but four of the New York votes.
Bradley has not been stricken by the silver issue, and is expected to be a strong supporter of McKinley.

So many tables have been compiled showing both that McKinley will be elected and that he will not, that it is almost impossible to find a single table that is not correct. The money plank of the platform will, it is believed, be a miracle supreme, determining the nomination for or against the leader. The arrival of Thomas C. Platt Thursday night gave encouragement and support to the opposition. There are no signs now that silver will be in sympathy with silver wing of the party. It is thought he will be the rallying point for a small number of delegates, but that other than an honorable fight will be made against McKinley, but present evidence as presented here demonstrates the fact that McKinley will be elected on the first ballot.

Most of the McKinley delegates seated at the convention on June 12.—The national committee were promptly getting together in the clubhouse of the Western Thursday morning for the purpose of making out a list of the numerous counties. Most of the McKinley delegates were seated.

DAVIDSON WINS.

NICHOLASVILLE, Ky., June 12.—The Eighty-third Republican convention met at Nicholasville to elect a representative to congress. Col. W. J. Wilson presided. The work began by reading Hon. Andrew Baker and Dr. J. M. Duff as temporary chairman. The vote taken elected Baker by 90 to 50. Next was the selection of the committees on resolution and credentials.

The committee on rules made its report restricting the nominating speeches to ten minutes. Col. P. M.
McIntosh presented the name of Judge C. M. Davidson, of Lincoln county, for nomination, seeing defeat was certain, requested that Davidson's name be made unanimous, which was done rather reluctantly by the Smith forces. The convention then adjourned.
